Guided Tour of Malton

Guide: Ann Clark

Meet at Malton Museum, 36, Yorkersgate, Malton (take York road from crossroads in centre of Malton)

Duration: 1.5 hours

Cost: £5 per person

Max. No. 20 people

Ann Clark is especially interested in archaeology and was involved with the Wharram Percy excavations.

Malton, as we know it, started at Orchard Fields, the site of the Roman Fort, which is away from the main town, then moved east to Old Malton before New Malton was established in the medieval period. We will be looking at New Malton put in context with the earlier settlements.

There is no parking in the Market place on a Saturday. Various Car Parks in the town, at Morrison's, around the perimeters of the Market place, further north through the main street to Helmsley, etc. There are plenty of eating establishments in the town.
